Activities of Punjab Red Cross Drug-Deaddiction Centres

Impressive Camps by the Team Gurdaspur

Punjab Red Cross Drug-Deaddiction Centre Gurdaspur organised awareness camps at slum areas / brickkilns at village Bhullechack and Village Pahra. The people living in the slum areas mostly take their homemade liquor or other cheap drugs which are very dangerous for their health. They were told about the bad effects of addiction. They were impressed upon that addiction is a curable disease and they may get free treatment including at IRCA Gurdaspur. The children were persuaded to prevail upon their influence on their parents to leave addiction so that they may opt for their future career.

The land of Punjab has always given birth to brave warriors, but some people are putting the youth on the path of drugs for their own benefits and endangering the future of Punjab. We should be aware of such people and be careful to avoid this bad swamp of drugs. To spread this message, the Punjab Red Cross De-addiction Centres namely Khanpur, Nawasheher, Patiala and Khanpur have organised awareness lectures at different locations. Such awareness campaigns not only help to aware the society, but also motivate the drug addicts to get rid of this bad habit, the addicts also come to know about rehabilitation centres where they can be treated free of cost. Through these campaigns many individuals have approached our rehabilitation centres and are treated well on time. These individuals motivates the other individuals outside who are still struggling with this habit.
